

TFU Roadrunners Put Stake Thru Vampires In Opening Night Win

A packed house of (26) fans at Aiken Stadium watched the Trade Fair University RoadRunners open the 2014 season with a 10-7 win over the visiting Transylvania Vampires.

Neither team could get anything going in the 1st Qtr, which ended at 0-0. The TFU offense bogged down as QB Kim Yu Suk was late arriving to the game from his pregame meal at the West End Grill. The Roadrunners put (3) points on the board in the 2nd Qtr as placekicker Wydeuss Wright was good on a 19-yard FG.

The Vampires, members of the BS Conference (Blood Sucking Conference) played much better in the 3rd Qtr as they were able to finally clear out the garlic smell in their lockerroom. (When questioned about the garlic smell, Jimmy's Three-time-loser-friend said, "I know nothin' & I don't smell nothin'") A 3-yard TD plunge by Transylvania RB, Luis Suarez, put the Vampires in front 7-3.

In the 4th Qtr, TFU went on a 74-yard drive as RB Richie Bonatto scored the go-ahead TD.

Said TFU Coach Neil Logan after the game, "Just like the stock market, tonight wasn't always predictable. Our lack of focus on MMBTUs really made the difference in this win."

This Saturday night the Roadrunners will be on the road to play the Texas State Penitentiary University Hoodlums down in Huntsville.

In the 4th Qtr, TFU went on a 74-yard drive with RB Richie Bonatto scoring the go-ahead TD.
